Gregg LeRock FAQs

Who is Gregg LeRock?

Gregg LeRock is a graduate of the University of Ottawa's distinguished Lettres Françaises faculty. A two-time JUNO nominee, Gregg has managed to combine his three loves—teaching French, writing songs and performing for kids—into a single vocation. In addition to releasing three best-selling CDs and performing for hundreds of thousands of students, Gregg has penned dozens of songs for Canada's top educational publishers. His songs are featured in numerous French textbooks (Visages, Images, Destinations, Acti-Vie, À La Ronde and Carrousel) and are sung in classrooms from coast to coast.

What kind of music does Gregg play?

Gregg's high-energy concerts feature pop, reggae, dance, folk, blues and rock, guaranteed to get every kid singing and rocking ... in French! He performs curriculum-based songs from his JUNO-nominated CDs, as well as selections from the songs he has written for French textbooks.

How do we prepare our students so that they get the most out of a Gregg LeRock concert?

Each attending school receives complimentary CDs, song Powerpoints and videos – along with concert posters and a song list – so that students will be able to learn the songs in advance. Many schools play Gregg's songs as part of morning announcements in the months leading up to the show; others design posters based on one of Gregg's songs; others write plays or shoot music videos that incorporate Gregg's songs. Instrumental mixes (i.e. no vocals) are also provided on the CDs so that your students can be the lead singers!

Does Gregg do individual school concerts?

Due to the demand for his shows all across the country, Gregg performs board-wide, multi-school concerts in professional theatres and auditoriums.

What is the refund policy?

Schools are responsible for payment for all of the tickets they have confirmed via email or fax. All bookings are final, no exceptions. Sorry, no refunds.

What if there's a snow emergency the day of the concert?

If your school buses are cancelled that day because of inclement weather, we will gladly reschedule the concert at a mutually convenient date.
